Slide 2

In the following videos we want to present a few best practice examples for Open Educational Resources (OER)

Slide 3

You need all the information and many OER materials on one place?
Look at European Research Network of Open Education Resources of Madrid Open University is a collaborative space in which more than 50 international educational institutions and prestigious universities are involved.

Slide 4

All the learning communities will be able to take advantage of this web database, with more than 300 image banks, 250 audio files database, 250 video resources and more than 300 apps and programmes that can be used in education.

Slide 5

In addition, you can keep informed of all the open content news that will be published, such as projects and initiatives, bibliographical references, conferences and lectures, so you can stay up to date on the evolution of this movement.
