In the following videos we want to present a few best practice examples for Open Educational Resources (OER)

Slide 3

A community for all those involved or interested in digital, open and innovative education:
Open Education Europa

Slide 4

Every day teachers, school leaders, researchers, organisations and students discover new ideas and methods to make learning more effective, interesting and motivating.

The European Commission launched Open Education Europa to capture these ideas and ensure that anyone from across the EU can find, discuss and learn how to bring innovation to the world of education.

Slide 4

The site focuses primarily on the potential of digital technologies and materials to improve teaching and learning. The aim is to give educators of all levels of education, everyone who works with them, and everyone who shares a passion for education a place to discuss, learn, share, ask questions and be inspired.
