

UNIT 3 SOCIAL MEDIA AND JOB HUNTING

4.0

TEST

1. Which of the following DOESN'T consist THE 2020'S employees' qualifications?
 - a) New media Literacy
 - b) Not seeking out ways to learn and develop
 - c) Globally connected
 - d) Social intelligence
 - e) Cross cultural competences
 - f) Virtual collaboration

2. Check the false: Recruiters use twitter to:
 - a) Give out information about their organization
 - b) Post actual job vacancies
 - c) Recruiters don't use the twitter

3. Check the false: Many employers use Facebook to:
 - a) Promote their brand and graduate programs
 - b) Allow potential candidates to network only with graduates

4. Review the sentence: When Using Google+ for Job Hunting don't add people that are already employed in the company you are interested in
 - a) True
 - b) False

5. Review the sentence: LinkedIn provides Networking Opportunities with Professionals from only one chosen kind Work Field
- a) True
 - b) False
6. Check the false: When creating a Resume Pinboard on Pinterest you should
- a) Pin your previous job positions
 - b) Pin your Schools
 - c) Pin your volunteer work
 - d) Pin your very personal photos
7. Review the sentence: Keep in mind to regularly Google your name only for images to make sure that nothing inappropriate shows up
- a) True
 - b) False
8. Check the false: As a Job hunter you should be able to
- a) Understand Social Networking Media
 - b) Learn about how the most popular networks cannot really be places to promote CVS and move towards success
 - c) Experiment with creating, displaying and promoting your application in Social Networks
9. Review the sentence: You should never use your own tweets to show your interest in a particular career.
- a) True
 - b) False

10. Please fill in with the missing word: “Whether you want to increase your knowledge on a certain topic or you are interested in a particular subject, you can use the, content recommendation engine, feature for searching relevant content ”

a) Sparks

b) Apps

c) Join